Nutrition.gov is a USDA-sponsored website that offers credible information to help you make healthful eating choices. It serves as a gateway to reliable information on nutrition, healthy eating, physical activity, and food safety for consumers. The site is updated on an ongoing basis by a staff of Registered Dietitians at the Food and Nutrition Information Center (FNIC) located at the National Agricultural Library (NAL), Agricultural Research Service (ARS), U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). The website receives content guidance from a working group that consists of scientific experts in food and nutrition within USDA and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

Nutrition.gov was launched in 2004 as part of the USDA's Obesity Intervention Plan. It is funded by the Research, Education and Economics (REE) mission area of USDA.

The materials found on this website are not intended to be used for the diagnosis or treatment of a health problem or as a substitute for consulting a licensed health professional. Thank you for visiting Nutrition.gov!

STARTING A SMALL BUSINESS?

There are a lot of details and nuances that aren't generally known when starting up a business of any sort. Avoid the stumbling blocks and consider seeking Business Mentoring with SCORE – Service Corps of Retired Executives.

Dedicated to “entrepreneur education and the formation, growth and success of small business” SCORE is the nation’s largest network of volunteer, expert business mentors, with more than 10,000 volunteers in 300 chapters. As a resource partner of the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), SCORE has helped more than 10 million entrepreneurs through mentoring, workshops and educational resources since 1964.

SCORE is a nonprofit association dedicated to helping small businesses get off the ground, grow and achieve their goals through education and mentorship. We have been doing this for over fifty years. Because our work is supported by the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), and thanks to our network of 10,000 volunteers, we are able to deliver our services at no charge or at very low cost.

They provide:

- Volunteer MENTORS who share their expertise across 62 industries
- Free, confidential business MENTORING in person, via email or by video
- Free business TOOLS, templates and tips here online
- Inexpensive or free business WORKSHOPS (locally) and webinars (online 24/7)
- Our 300 chapters hold events and workshops locally across the U.S. and its territories, and match up entrepreneurs with local, volunteer mentors.

Their website includes a Mentor finder by location around the U.S., a blog, e-newsletter, online resources, workshops and webinars, networking opportunities and much more: <https://www.score.org>

SCORE exists nationwide, usually has facilities at a Main Branch of your local Library, or at the Local Chamber of Commerce. In Tempe, SCORE operates out of, and in conjunction with, BRiC, the Business Resource and Innovation Center, in the Basement Level of the Main Branch of the Tempe Public Library on Rural and Southern. BRiC is a separate entity that provides entrepreneurs and small business with co-working and meeting space, mentoring, business classes and networking opportunities. Every week are events by BRiC or by SCORE to help entrepreneurs and small businesses. For more information about BRiC and a calendar of entrepreneur and business lectures, visit the BRiC
